3. Program description

This course will be applicable in São Tomé and Príncipe.

The programme aims to train highly qualified professionals capable of working in the field of social intervention as well as in the design, implementation, and evaluation of socio-educational projects in São Tomé and Príncipe. Through comprehensive and specialised training, the course seeks to prepare practitioners who are able to intervene effectively in both the public and private sectors, contributing to the country's social development and to the improvement of living conditions for the most vulnerable populations.

Eligible applicants include teachers, sociologists, legal professionals, members of the security forces and services, members of the Child and Youth Protection Commissions, and other professionals from public bodies, such as the Ministry of Education, Culture, Science and Higher Education, the National Institute of Social Security, and the Directorate for Social Protection, Solidarity and Family of São Tomé and Príncipe.

4. Career opportunities

Graduates of this programme will be prepared to work in various areas of social and educational services, including:

. Public bodies, such as the Ministry of Education, Culture and Sciences (MECC), the National

- Institute of Social Security, and the Directorate for Social Protection, Solidarity and Family.
- . Non-governmental organisations and private institutions operating in the social sector.
 - . Academic institutions, contributing to the training and development of new social service professionals.
 - . Social development projects and programmes funded by international organisations.

5. General conditions of access and admission

i Conditions for access to the post-graduate program

Those who meet the following conditions may apply to the post-graduate program:

- Holders of the bachelor degree or legal equivalent;
- Holders of a foreign academic degree fully recognised as satisfying the objectives identical to the bachelor degree by the relevant scientific body of the higher education institution they wish to be admitted to;
- Holders of an academic, scientific or professional curriculum vitae that is recognized as attesting to the capacity to carry out this cycle of studies by the relevant scientific body of the higher education institution they wish to be admitted to.

ii Conditions of access to the post-graduate program at Universidade de Évora

On the application date, the undergraduate students must satisfy conditions that guarantee the conclusion of their undergraduate degree until the 30th of October of the admission year. The admission and enrollment of these students is conditioned on the conclusion of the degree until this date, and the enrollment is canceled if the student does not complete the degree within that period

During the first application phase, students who have a maximum of 6 curricular units or 36 ECTS missing for conclusion of their degree can apply for the 2nd cycle; in the 2nd application phase students can apply if they have at most 3 curricular units missing and in the 3rd application phase if they have at most one curricular unit missing

The previous condition does not apply to students with a curriculum that reveals professional or scientific experience, which can be recognized by the competent scientific body, as attesting the students ability to carry out the masters degree/post-graduation, provided that the student required that recognition in the application process

iii Specific admission conditions

Eligible applicants include teachers, sociologists, legal professionals, members of the security forces and services, members of the Child and Youth Protection Commissions, and other professionals from public bodies, such as the Ministry of Education, Culture, Science and Higher Education, the National Institute of Social Security, and the Directorate for Social Protection, Solidarity and Family of São Tomé and Príncipe.

Since the course will take place in São Tomé and Príncipe, only applications from residents of São Tomé and Príncipe will be accepted."
