Manuel Francisco Soares do Patrocínio (mfsp@uevora.pt)

3. Program description

The Master in History trains students with a solid theoretical and methodological background and with the ability to enter the labour market, whether in teaching, scientific research or cultural activities. It has a highly qualified teaching staff, integrated in several R&D units, funded by FCT (CIDEHUS-UE, CHAIA-UE and the CEHFCI IHC NOVA FCSH).

The students' academic path is closely monitored by the faculty; this monitoring includes the students' integration in the research teams. The EU R&D centres provide incentives to students to submit their work to academic events, extension events or for publication.

9. General conditions of access and admission

i Legal conditions for access to the cycle of studies leading to the master degree

Those who meet the following conditions may apply to the cycle of studies that leads to the master degree:

- Holders of the bachelor degree or legal equivalent;
- Holders of a foreign academic degree fully recognised as satisfying the objectives identical to the bachelor degree by the relevant scientific body of the higher education institution they wish to be admitted to;
- Holders of an academic, scientific or professional curriculum vitae that is recognized as attesting to the capacity to carry out this cycle of studies by the relevant scientific body of the higher education institution they wish to be admitted to.

ii Conditions of access to the cycle of studies at the Universidade de Évora

On the application date, the undergraduate students must satisfy conditions that guarantee the conclusion of their undergraduate degree until the 30th of October of the admission year. The admission and enrollment of these students is conditioned on the conclusion of the degree until this date, and the enrollment is canceled if the student does not complete the degree within that period

During the first application phase, students who have a maximum of 6 curricular units or 36 ECTS missing for conclusion of their degree can apply for the 2nd cycle; in the 2nd application phase students can apply if they have at most 3 curricular units missing and in the 3rd application phase if they have at most one curricular unit missing

The previous condition does not apply to students with a curriculum that reveals professional or scientific experience, which can be recognized by the competent scientific body, as attesting the students ability to carry out the masters degree/post-graduation, provided that the student required that recognition in the application process

iii Specific admission conditions

- Holders of a first degree in History or in other areas of Human and Social Sciences;
- Holders of a first degree in any scientific area, if there is evidence of scientific and curricular competencies to meet the objectives of the MA in History.
